14.30-17.30 MEETINGS Picturing the Difference: Gergely Laszlo, Bill Kouwenhoven, Daya Cahen, Grohman's Villa, 9/11 Tylina Street

The cycle of meetings accompanying the Picturing the Difference exhibition will start with a guided tour. During the tour, Gergely Laszlo and Bill Kouwenhoven will speak about the idea of the exhibition, the process of its creation and the projects selected by them. An interesting context for the exhibition will be created also by the latest project of the Gergely Laszlo's Collective entitled Yad Hanna - The Collective Man. The project objectives are closely related to the idea of the Picturing the Difference exhibition. The final item on the agenda will be a debate on topics raised by the exhibition: artists working together with local communities, role of an artist in the modern society, site-specific and context-specific projects where photography becomes a tool for research and establishing contact, and on partnership and networking methods in the modern artistic practices.
